REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL JURY

General:

The 8th FAI European Rally Flying Championship took place in Dunakeszi, Hungary.

Altogether 86 competitors (43 crews) from 13 nations took part in the Championship.

The Competitions were run according to the approved FAI Rules and Regulations for Rally Flying, 2010 edition.

Competition Maps:

Maps in scale 1:200.000 were available and they had all the necessary features, requested by the Rules and Regulations for Rally Flying.

Transportation:

There were no problems with transportation because hotel was located in 8 minutes by car to the airfield.

Accommodation and Meals:

The breakfasts and dinners were served in the competition hotel, the lunches at the restaurant near the airfield. There was also a bar with drinks and sandwiches available at the hotel and some drinks at the airfield.

Ceremonies:

The Opening ceremony took place at the airfield. The former GAC President Mr. Pedro Cabanero and some officials of City Dunakeszi and local Aeroclub were present. Opening ceremony with speeches of the guests and FAI anthems was finished by good dinner in nice restaurant.

The Closing ceremony took place again at the airfield and was very nice prepared, and the FAI GAC active President, Mr Vang Jensen was in front of the event.
At the end of the days everybody were satisfied because of the good championships.

Airfield Facilities/Registration and Information Office:

There was only one grass runway available. The Registration and Information office was placed at the airfield near the Aeroclub buildings. The competition staff had good enough facilities for their work.

Briefings/Communication:

General Briefing and the Team Managers briefings were held in the central hangar, and daily briefings were also held at the airfield. Every National team had own boxes and there were Official Information Boards on the one of the organisers container at the airfield.

Judges:

The International Chief Judge for Rally Flying – Mr. Majiek Biacek from Poland had checked all the routes preparations with the Jury President Mr. Pedro Cabañero, route planner and computer staff, before the competition started.

Although The Jury had checked all the routes.

There were 8 International and National Judges and 16 helpers available.

The Hungarian landing system was available with experienced staff and all landings were judged according to Rally Rules & Regulations. Also the landing were recorded with two video cameras.

The results were presented to the Team Managers every day evening at 17.00.
